How Many Will Complete Course? Saturday, May 11

MILES FOR MILLIONS MARCH

Twenty-five Mile Hike to Help Less Fortunate

About two hundred people are expected to take part in the "Miles for Millions March" to be held in the Drayton Valley area next Saturday, May 11th. Anticipated turnout is based on the number of applications already out and being circulated by those planning to take part in the hike to help less fortunate people around the world.

The course laid out (see map) actually covers a good twenty-four miles. The marchers will strike out west of Drayton Valley then swing across to the Easyford junction on the Cynthia road and back to Rocky Rapids and home through the coulee.

The march will start and finish at the Drayton Valley Centennial Civic Centre. Registration will start at 7:00 a.m. and the marchers will move out at 8:00.

Most of the route is over gravel roads with a little pavement and dirt. Finishing times are estimated at anywhere from six hours after start and up depending on the optimism of the hiker.

Application forms are still available at both banks and at Bambees and The Bay. Young people were the first to jump at the idea and although many adults have since signed up it is hoped that many more will take out applications and help to soar the total.

After they receive their application forms the marchers seek out people prepared to sponsor them at any rate they wish for miles walked. It is hoped the march will raise a substantial sum which is to be divided between OXFAM, the Indian-Eskimo Association of Canada, Crossroads Africa and a fund for local charitable emergencies.

Some of those taking part have already been sponsored for as much as $225 if they cover the whole route.

Father Edward Lynch of St. Anthony's Parish spearheaded the movement locally and is assisted by a committee of Bill Johanneson, Fred Schipper, Ron Smith and Bob Doig. Service clubs have also extended their help and will be taking part in the organization and conduct of the march which will be co-ordinated by Police Chief Bob Doig from the Central Control at the Centennial Arena.

Trackers with mobile telephones will be stationed at check points along the route maintaining communication throughout the course of the march. Water will be available at points along the route but marchers should carry whatever food they require.

Complete instructions for marchers are printed on the application form which must be filled out and turned in at the registration starting at 7:00 a.m. Saturday. All marchers must sign the waiver form and those under 14 years of age must be accompanied by someone over that age. In the case of persons under 21 years of age the waiver form must be signed by a parent or guardian.

Official cars will patrol the march route and committee members urge that other persons refrain from travelling the route except when necessary.

In the event of rain a decision to go or postpone will be made at starting time.

All marchers will move off together at 8:00 a.m. and all are asked to return to the Centennial Civic Centre and check out when they either complete the course or decide to drop out. Cars along the route will pick up those who decide they've had enough before the end of the march.

Many young people from district points who attend school in Drayton Valley plan on marching and are busy finding sponsors. It is the hope of the committee that many more adults, from district points and Drayton Valley alike, will also take part even if they only finish a portion of the course. All the sponsored money will go to good causes--and every little bit counts.

Banff Man Wins P.C. Nomination

H. L. Gourlay, a Banff motel owner, defeated former Jasper-Edson MP Doug Caston to win the Progressive Conservative nomination in the new Rocky Mountain constituency in the forthcoming Federal Election.

Three ballots were required to give Mr. Gourlay a 109 to 101 victory in the nominating convention at the Capri Motor Hotel in Red Deer on Sunday.

Two other candidates Ron Allen, a Red Deer real estate agent and Dave Grier, a Calgary lawyer, went out on the first and second ballots. The first count gave Gourlay 102, Caston 88, Allen 13 and Grier 6; on the second Gourlay received 104, Caston 95 and Allen 8; the final count went to Gourlay with 109 to Caston's 101.

Mr. Caston, publisher of the Edson Leader, was elected in Jasper-Edson riding about six months ago in a by-election to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Dr. Hugh Horner to enter provincial politics.

The new Rocky Mountain Constituency, created by recent redistribution, encompasses the former Jasper-Edson riding in a monstrous stretch from Waterton Park, 500 miles north. Three national parks are included in its boundaries and a number of major towns including Banff, Rocky Mountain House, Drayton Valley, Whitecourt, Edson, Hinton and Jasper.

On April 19th Melvin Homme and his wife visited his relations at Burtonsville and took his parents home with him to Red Deer where they also visited their son, Bill and his wife in the Joffrey area. On their way through Winfield they dropped in to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ole Ouam and their daughter Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Ouam farmed in this district in the 30's. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reece at Lacombe, formerly of this district. Mrs. Reece is a sister to Mary Tattersall.

Heartiest good wishes for future happiness are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McGinn, nee Judy Ashmead, whose marriage was solemnized in Drayton Valley on May 4th.

Ann Marie Ganske was among the hikers who took to the roads and trails around Edmonton last weekend in the Miles for Millions. Ann Marie walked twenty-five miles in nine hours and she was a tired and foot sore little girl but she feels that the $37.50 that she earned for such a worthy cause made all the blisters worthwhile.

Mrs. Nick Urchyshyn had a delightful surprise on Saturday when Mrs. Nathan Mitchell of Victoria, called on her. It is thirty years since Mrs. Mitchell left the district and this is the first time she has been back. It is understandable that she found the town and district changed beyond recognition.

Sincere congratulations to Mr. Howard Pickup who has been chosen Druggist of the Year.

Mrs. Hennessey of Westmeath, Ontario, spent the weekend of April 27th with the Lindsay Johnstons. Mrs. Hennessey lived in Camrose when the Johnstons were there.

Best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henkel, nee Margaret McCullagh, whose marriage took place on Saturday.

I wish to take this opportunity to wish Mr. and Mrs. Will Mustard, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday at Seba Beach, many more years of happiness. The Mustards are well known here having come when oil was discovered. They stayed for some years before moving on to Hinton and eventually settling at Seba Beach.

It is not my intention to steal news items from this paper's Gainford-Seba correspondent but I should like to be allowed to make a few comments about the reception and dinner that were given for Mr. and Mrs. Mustard on Saturday at Seba Beach.

The bride of fity years was lovely in a most becoming suit. Her groom was handsome and most gracious to all, Mr. Harry Zolmer, as M.C. was his usual urbane self. The indefatigable Mrs. May was here, there and everywhere helping serve dinner, seeing to guests' comfort and adding her own to touch of humour to the program.

It was an occasion to be remembered with pleasure for a long time.

Remember Mrs. Casey--Barbara to many of us? This ambitious young lady has her own real estate and insurance business in Edmonton. She calls her company "Homes and Gardens" and her card is one of the most attractive I have ever seen.

Saturday's high winds and dry conditions brought fire hazards to many farm people. When the Kos buildings were threatened volunteer fire fighters rallied round and in the thick of the smoke was our mayor, Dr. Robert Findlay. We heard that the Manuel Schultzes lost buildings on one of their farms but do not know any details.

Agricultural Forecasts to Start Again This Week

The Alberta Agricultural Weather Forecast will start this week, the Alberta Department of Agriculture has announced.

This will be the eighth season that the Alberta Department of Agriculture and the Edmonton Public Weather office have co-operated to produce the forecast which is designed to assist farmers plan their farming operations as they relate to the weather.

The forecast will be issued at 10:45 a.m. Monday to Friday to all Alberta radio and television stations. It is expected that most stations will carry the forecast during the noon hour.

As in the past, the forecast will give the weather for the current day, the following day with an outlook for the third day and for longer periods when conditions warrant. Weather officials say that with improvements in technology and the use of computers the accuracy in predicting third and fourth day outlooks is increasing. The Agricultural Weather Forecast covers the three main agricultural areas of the province--the Peace, the Parkland and the Prairie - and ties weather conditions to current farming operations and crop conditions in each of the areas.

The Drayton Valley area is included within the parkland boundaries which border on Whitecourt, Athabasca and Lac La Biche on the north and on the south along a line that stretches from Lloydminster, through Stettler and Didsbury to the B.C. border.

Brochures showing farmers the boundaries of the agricultural forecast regions are available from District Agriculturists or the Publications Branch, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

The school teacher asked a student the following: "If you had $27.35 in one pocket and $45.63 in the other, what would you have?"

"I would have somebody else's pants on."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Still Room for More Marchers . . .

Get out your old army boots and come out and walk on Saturday for a good cause.

More adults are needed for the "Miles for Millions March" and even if you don't complete the course you can get some fresh air and have some fun while your walking efforts add to the fund to help people around the world in less fortunate circumstances than ourselves.

Some of your friends will probably laugh when you suggest making a twenty-five mile hike. Let that be your signal to pull out the application and get them to back up the laugh with a little money for every mile you cover.

Thousands and thousands of children in stricken areas of the world live with hunger every day. Even if your walking is now confined to a brisk stroll from the back door to the garage you could probably grind out a few miles to help ease the pangs of these youngsters who are suffering through no fault of their own.

All the money raised will go into a fund to assist OXFAM, Crossroads Africa, the Indian Eskimo Association of Canada, and a local fund to meet emergencies of a charitable nature.

The blisters and sore muscles will heal long before the good feeling of helping someone who really needs it is forgotten.

Federal Politics Dead Issue Here?

The southern portion of Rocky Mountain Constituency won out over the north in Sunday's Progressive Conservative nominating convention at Red Deer.

The south made sure plenty of support was on hand for their candidate, but except for a strong delegation from Edson and one or two other points, the northern part of the constituency paid scant at attention to the meeting. Drayton Valley, one of the major communities in the riding, had only five delegates present to vote.

We certainly won't do much about who represents us in Parliament that way.

It's going to take a well-known and strong candidate to get support throughout the whole Rocky Mountain monster that stretches 500 miles from north to south along the foothills and into the mountain resort areas.

Whether Mr. Gourlay, the PC nominee from Banff, is capable of the task remains to be seen. A well-known representative of a more central area might have been a wiser choice and it will be interesting to see who the Liberals select to carry their banner.

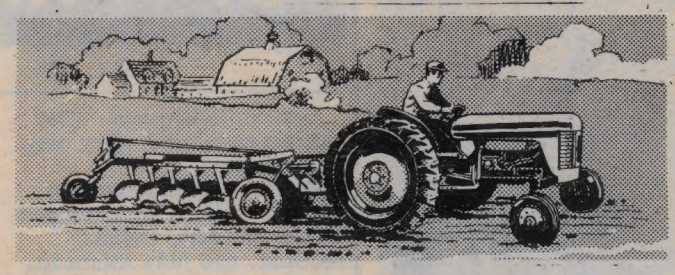
FARM NOTES



More Feedlots in Future

OTTAWA--Beef feedlots, particularly those in Alberta and Ontario, are accounting for a larger share of the total Canadian beef production than ever before.

Economist A.M. Boswell of the Canada Department of Agriculture sees a trend to feedlot finishing that will continue strong in Ontario and Alberta. He has found that since the early 1950's the cattle feeding industry has been undergoing steady expansion, almost quadrupling beef production.

Feedlot production contributes to the increase in income from farm cattle and calves, now the biggest source of income for the Canadian livestock industry. Beef consumption also rose--from 51 pounds a person in 1950 to 83 pounds in 1967.

Writing in the spring edition of Canadian Farm Economics, Mr. Boswell reported that between 1965 and 1967 when total beef production dropped slightly, marketings of choice and good grades combined--most of them from feedlots--increased 8.2 per cent. Consumers found a corresponding increase of top quality beef in retail stores last year from the record 1,500,000 high-quality carcasses marketed. The percentage of top-quality carcasses also increased dramatically to 55 per cent of total gradings in 1967 from 29 per cent in 1950.

According to the 1966 census, there were 922 farms reporting cattle on feed in Canada producing more than 178 head each a year and all but 152 of them were in Alberta and Ontario. The average herd size was 373 head. Across Canada the average herd size ranges from 25 to 30 head.

Mr. Boswell predicts the number of 100 to 400-head herds will continue to increase. Feedlot finishing performs three important functions--carcass quality is improved, beef tonnage is increased and marketings are more evenly distributed over the entire year.

More feedlots will dot the rural landscape.

Mr. Boswell predicts they will be concentrated in Ontario because these farmers are close to the larger cities and have corn available for feed, and in Alberta because most of the feeder cattle are raised there and feed grains are plentiful.

Sowing Mixed Grain

Is it a good idea to sow mixed cereal grains?

A three-year test conducted by the Lacombe Research Station on Park wheat, Eagle oats, Husky barley and various combinations of each showed that a mixture containing three-quarters barley and one-quarter oats produced the highest number of pounds of grain and the highest energy level per acre.

Straight barley was second and a mixture consisting of one-one-third barley, one third oats and one-third wheat was third. Next came a combination of half barley, one quarter oats and one-quarter wheat.

Probably the two main advantages of planting mixed cereal grains are that less labor is required when the grain is crushed for feed, and that it is an ideal way of using up left-over treated seed.

S. Yelland, cereal and oil seed crops specialist with the Alberta Plant Industry Division, feels that the disadvantages of sowing mixed grains outweigh the advantages. They includ the danger of increasing our already serious weed problems be planting improperly cleaned seed. It is very difficult to do a good job of cleaning seed that has been mixed before being brought to the cleaning plant.

The fact that the yield from a crop of mixed cereals will not be in proportion to the amount of each cereal sown will present a problemfor some livestock feeders. They will find it extremely difficult to mix the exact proportions that are called for in growing and fattening rations.

Lower returns than those obtained from even feed grades of of a specific cereal can be expected if a mixed grain crop is marketed rather than fed to livestock.

Extra labor will be required to mix the grains before they are planted.

Although more than 360,000 acres of land in Alberta are sown each year to mixed grain, Mr. Yelland believes that this acreage and the acreage now being sown to oats will gradually diminish as more of the new, high-yielding barley varieties are used to replace these crops. Research has shown that relatively high energy yielding varieties can displace much, or all, of the other grains now being included in livestock feeding rations.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Western Review

Dear Sir:

On behalf of myself and other residents of Drayton Valley, I would like to apoligize to the Watch Tower Convention delegates who stayed at the campsite north of Town and had to put up with certain rowdies who drove in late at night with their horns blasting away.

Many of these people came with their families including small children and I think it is not only rude but also cruel to act in such a manner.

Certainly it is not the kind of treatment we would relish and I'm sure this is not the type of welcome we should give to visitors to our Town.

Those irresponsible persons who were involved should be ashamed of themselves.

Yours truly,
Thomas Moss.

Editor,
The Western Review,

Dear Sir:

On reviewing my report of the Synod, I found that, because of lack of space, part of it was omitted. Perhaps you would be so kind as to put this remainder in this week.

It would seem, from the report given by Canon E. Thain on the committees working on ecumenical conversations in the last two years that, if it were left up to these committees, church unity would be a fact tomorrow, among Anglican, United Church and Roman Catholic churches. However, he felt that the change must come from a "more rarefied atmosphere" and that at the grass roots level there could be union soon.

Mr. Douglas Roche, Editor of the Western Catholic Reporter, was a very interested visitor to the Synod and proved to be an excellent speaker in the cause of unity.

Further to the Sorrento Lay Training Centre on Shushwap Lake in B.C., there are camping and cabin facilities to rent for a nominal fee; a good place to spend a few days of holidays with all, part or none of the time planned for activities. Baby sitting services are available. Young people who have attended provide leadership in their communities upon return.

Canon Leadbeater pleaded for the church to find modern ways of returning religious study to at least the high school level in our public schools. He felt that public education is becoming more and more agnostic.

Mr. Roland Ward, Superintendent of Elementary Schools in Westlock, stated that increasing demands on students time made it impossible to squeeze religious subjects into a school day. Your delegate feels that where there is a will there is a way. Rev. Wheelock of the Canadian Bible Society said the Book Store on 103 St. now handles literature for all denominations.

A resolution was passed to make recommendation to the Provincial Government for the provision of officers and decent facilities for civil marriage ceremonies in all communities as may be desired.

Following the youth report, there was a lively discussion preceding the resolution to lower the voting age on Synod from 21 to 18.

Regarding visitors to the Synod, I felt it was a great opportunity to see how the church functions. Only a few attended and next year we hope to see all the seats filled.

Mrs. Marion Palmer

Over 900 Attend Convention Here

Over 943 persons attended the semi-annual circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at the Centennial Civic Centre in Drayton Valley, May 3rd, 4th and 5th. The convention was sponsored by the Watch Tower Society which directs the missionary activities of the Witnesses around the world.

Mr. Ernest Adamson, circuit supervisor and convention organizer, said the convention is a regular feature for the Witnesses. "Not only does it provide an opportunity for getting acquainted with other members of the organization," he said, "but these gatherings also provide practical counsel covering spiritual matters in everyday life."

Mr. Adamson conducted a series of demonstrations showing how families - parents and children - can work together in making home a family unit working and playing with one another.

Thomas Moss, minister of the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Drayton Valley, stated it was interesting to note so many children and teenagers present. Of the eleven persons baptized at the assembly Mr. Moss said six were youths in their teens.

Mr. Moss, who was in charge of the rooming department said convention delegates used all available space in hotels, motels, trailer parks, camp grounds and private homes. Over 108 persons were accommodated in private homes for the weekend.

Featured speaker of the convention was J.F. MacPherson of Toronto.

It's the little professional touches that make your garments look hand-made or homemade.

There are a few things that I notice most frequently in judging at various displays and fairs.

One of the most glaring errors is in button and buttonhole placement. Have you ever noticed that sometimes the collar edges don't meet at center front or that buttons hang over the edge of the opening? This shouts, "I made it myself".

When marking the pattern, use white tracing paper or tailor's chalk or thread tacks to mark on center front on both left and right fronts.

Buttons should be sewn on center front. (If you're using a much larger button than the pattern calls for, you will have to make allowances in the width from center front to the edge of the opening).

Buttonholes begin 1/8" past center front on the opening side.

These considerations will insure that collar edges will meet and buttons will be in line with the collar edges.

Whopper from Pembina

This should bring a rush of anglers to the banks of the Pembina. Pete Vowk of Easyford is shown holding a 9 lb. 7 oz. Walleye (Pickerel) that he took from the Pembina Saturday morning. There were still ice patches in the river at the weekend and Mr. Vowk caught his prize in a stretch of clear water near the mouth of the creek that empties into the Pembina at the Easyford Provincial Park. The fish was taken on a Canadian Wriggler.

EVANSBURG

Correspondent

This last week has brought another addition to our family of baby animals. We now have a very helpless, for the present, yellow kitten for the children to make a fuss over.

The United Church Women's group held a very successful smorgasbord supper last Thursday evening at the Legion Hall. The ladies were kept extremely busy serving all who attended.

The Kinsmen and Kinettes celebrated ten years of very active community work with a dine and dance evening at the Entwistle Community Hall last Friday. There was good music to dance by and the members, both Kinsmen and Kinettes put on a very enjoyable floor show for the entertainment of their guests. Visiting Kinsmen from Mayerthorpe were introduced and also attending the evening of fun were Mr. and Mrs. George Frunchak and Mr. and Mrs. Tibbett, both couples formerly from Evansburg. A very delicious meal was served at midnight and the whole affair was much enjoyed by all. Here's wishing the group another ten years of community good works and fun.

About forty-five people attended the Community meeting held at the Holly Springs Community Centre last week. Officials from ARDA were in charge of the meeting to explain to the people what ARDA can do to help rural communities in recreational activities. Also shown were those areas of land that are not being actively farmed in the area.

The 4-H calf tour scheduled for the 27th was cancelled due to other commitments on the part of some of the members and leaders. Several of the students from the high school went to Hinton to take part in the gymnastics competition there last Saturday.

The UCW held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutchinson on May 1st. Seventeen of the nineteen members were present, this being the largest attendance at a meeting for some time. General business was discussed as well as the wonderful turnout at the supper held recently. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Annie Graham in Evansburg on June 5th.

A grass fire brought out the Volunteer Fire Brigade on the 27th. No damage was done to any buildings, but the firemen have now decided to turn out evenings and burn areas where other grass fires may start. At their regular meeting on the 1st, the Firemen decided to hold their auction sale of various goods sometime in June. I hope to have a definite date on this soon.

And, in the Hollysprings district, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutchinson both celebrated birthdays on the last weekend of April. They were presented with presents and beautiful birthday cakes from the family. Many happy returns, Bert and Evelyn.

The last day of April saw the little ones, who will be beginning school this September, at the Evansview School getting their medical checkups. All the ones I saw while waiting our turn seemed to think this was a great thing and accepted it all as part of growing up and going to school. It is to be hoped that they all accept the going to class part with as much enthusiasm.

Thanks From Cancer Society

We would like to take this opportunity on thanking all the people who gave so generously to the Cancer Campaign, realizing the wonderful amount of $843.90. A special thank you to all the canvassers for taking of their time and effort to make this year's campaign such a success.

Earl and Ramona Rasmussen and family motored to Three Hills on the weekend. They had a nice visit with Ramona's family. Bill Woodruff did the chores for them.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henkel who were married on May 4th. We wish you many happy years together. Mrs. Henkel is the former Margaret McCullagh.

Don't forget Ramona's bingo next Tuesday, May 14th. The jackpot is $125.00.

Summary of U.C.W. Meeting

The United Church Women held their meeting on April 24 at 8:00 p.m. in the church basement. The meeting was brought to order followed by devotions. Plans for a Pot Luck Supper to be held on Monday, June 17, 1968 were made and the program is to have a guest speaker. Coin bags are to be distributed to church members to help with assistance in church funds. The Fashion Show was reported to have made a profit of $50.70.

Two hundred book markers were to be ordered to pass out while hospital visiting. Also six gifts were to be purchased and sent to the Oliver Mental Hospital.

An interesting program on Japan followed. Record was listened to and Mrs. Martin showed some slides and souvenirs. A song was sung by the members and then lunch was enjoyed by all.

Legislature Report

By Tony Cox

The first session of the 16th Alberta Legislature, although it didn't produce too much new business, did set one record. It sat for 54 days and 24 nights, the longest session under a Social Credit government. No one wanted to believe Premier Manning when he said it would be a routine session but that's exactly what it turned out to be.

116 new bills were introduced, many of them government housekeeping changes but others dealt with municipal government, municipal elections, housing, health regions and the teaching of French in schools.

For the first time since 1937 the Social Credit government had to bring an interim supply bill before the House to provide money for temporary operating while the $893,000,000 budget was approved. But despite the lengthy questioning, the six Conservatives did not succeed in slicing one cent from the spending estimates.

Two ominous shadows were cast this session. The government introduced a bill authorizing the borrowing of $50,000,000 on the open market to help meet the estimated $70,000,000 deficit if the province's liquid reserves are exhausted.

Provincial Treasurer, A.O. Aalborg said substantial new forms of taxation may be needed next year to maintain the level of public services. This could mean a sales tax.

Possibly the most contentious issue raised by the Opposition was the handling of the Alberta Resources Railway. While the Tories approved its construction in principle, they accused the government of mismanaging the financing of the ARR.

What promised to be a significant piece of legislation, the establishment of health regions throughout the province, was left another year for more study. French language instruction is now permitted 50 percent of the time in schools on a voluntary basis.

There were several demonstrations. University students protested a tuition fee increase, electricians marched protesting a labour dispute and Indian and Metis women raised their voices against a federal cutback in health services. Despite continued protests by farmers, the three cent a gallon tax on gasoline became law.

The session signalled the start of a new era, one which will revolve around Peter Lougheed. No matter how much government backbenchers grumbled about the interminable questions, Mr. Lougheed and his team laid the groundwork for the years ahead. They prodded and poked leaving a mark which will not easily be forgotten. The Tories say the question period will become a revitalised part of the Legislature next year.

With pay cheques bulging from an $1,800 raise to $7,200, MLA's departed with the thought that two of their colleagues will not likely be back, Liberal leader Mike Maccagno, a 13-year veteran of the House and Bill Dickie (Lib-Calgary Glenmore) both intend seeking nominations in Athabasca and Calgary South ridings respectively for the June 25th election.

Premier Manning again turned a cold shoulder on televising proceedings of the House although Mr. Lougheed thinks it is a good idea. The Premier said he has no intention of turning the Legislature into a 'stage production'.

The press gallery had the last word as usual during prorogation ceremonies as they showered the traditional deluge of paper on the MLA's. The paper storm of their own words left MLA's walking around ankle deep in paper after the longest and wordiest session in Social Credit history.

A final note; if the Edmonton Eskimos are short of a quarterback this season, Don Getty (PC-Strathcona West) is showing signs of a return to form. As the paper wafted down, a roll of toilet paper somehow was included. Bending down and with a quick glance, Mr. Getty had the intruding roll on its way for a touchdown, right back into the press gallery.

Bridge Repairs by Scout Engineers

Large Crowd Attends Teleshow at Tomahawk

The Tomahawk hall was filled to overflowing as AGT held its Teleshow to enlighten new and old telephone subscribers as Tomahawk will undergo a complete change-over to Direct Distance Dialing on midnight May 4th.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was Stephen Bird, from the AGT Public Relations Department.

To start the evening Howard Gilbert, substituting for Rudolph Zander who was rushed to the hospital, gave the history of the Tomahawk Mutual Telephone Company, which started in 1938. The area took in Seba Beach, Tomahawk, Berrymoor, Rocky Rapids and Drayton Valley with 26 telephones all on one line.

The telephone board, consisted of Frank King, Martin McGinn, Frank Lewis, William Combs and Ralph Thatcher. Ralph Thatcher is the only member of the board who is still living. He is 78 years old and was in attendance.

The Tomahawk Telephone Company has grown to 102 members with 7 telephone lines, but the area is cut down to include only part of Berrymoor and all of Tomahawk.

The evening continued with John Walker from the commercial department thanking Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steinke for their service for the past 15 years as agent and operators for AGT. He also presented Mrs. Adele Steinke with a plaque and a cheque for her past 15 years of service.

Ron Doucette told all about the use of a rural phone with the help of slides.

Gail Loisette, from AGT Traffic Department with the help of slides, told the uses of the telephone directory, where to find what we want, and how to use the telephone. There were four free telephone calls won. The winners were Wally Machuk, Mrs. Matilda Dusterhoft, Linda Reich and Greta Pryor. These winners can make a free five-minute telephone call to any one in North America. The calls will be made on May 9th.

Gail Loisette will be in Tomahawk on Thursday, May 9th making different calls to see how people like their new telephones.

Wetaskiwin Association Fund Drive

Flowers of Hope is the banner for the mentally retarded children this year in the campaign of the Wetaskiwin & District Association for Retarded Children. When the drive opens on Mother's Day, households in the Wetaskiwin-Ponoka-Drayton Valley area will have received colourful leaflets in pink envelopes saying, "Here are your Mother's Day seeds". Attached to the leaflet are small plastic bags of cosmo seeds. The message in the leaflet begins "A Mother's Hope....."

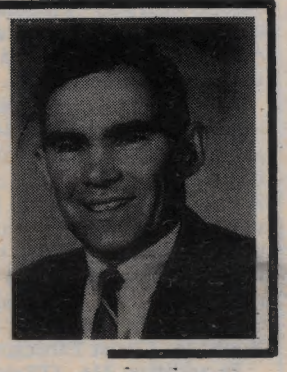
In the campaign, which will continue for the next month, the Wetaskiwin & District Association seeks to raise contributions in support of their Building Fund. A School for Retarded Children will be built in Wetaskiwin this year.

The Wetaskiwin & District Association for Retarded Children is a member of the Alberta Association for Retarded Children and the period between May 12th and 18th inclusive, is known as Canadian Retarded Children's Week.

One woman to another: "I won't go into all the details. In fact, I've already told you more about it than I heard myself."

Recreation Round-Up

By Mike Gormley



AT THE POOL

Work will start this week on the repair and the painting of the Drayton Valley Swimming Pool. The progress of this job will depend to a great extent on the weather during the next two weeks. A tentative opening date has been set for May 20, however, with unfavorable weather a more realistic date for opening day would be May 26 or some time close to that date.

Preliminary work under way on the local swimming program and from here it would seem that the 1968 program will follow closely along the lines of last year's operation with some minor changes in schedule and in the swimming instruction program.

ON THE DIAMOND

The Minor Baseball program is progressing favorably. The Oilfield League schedule opens Friday for local teams in the "Little Canadian" and Midget categories. Local leagues will be formed within the next week for boys aged ten to twelve years and for those from six to nine years of age. We still have a coaching problem especially in respect to the younger boys.

We would need five or six interested individuals to take over the coaching reins if this Little League program is going to be successful.

The Juvenile team is holding regular practices under Charley Davies and Bryan Crerar. The Juveniles will in all likelihood play exhibition games throughout the season with teams in the vicinity. The possibility of forming a league at this level would not appear to be very encouraging this year.

SOFTBALL NEWS

The Drayton Valley Men's Softball League will be in operation again this summer. The local league will comprise six teams, Goliad, Mobil Oil, Pan American, Pembina Meter a Church team and the members of the Rebel Hockey Club. A regular schedule is being drawn up and league play should be under way in a week or so.

A girl's softball team has been organized and regular practices are being held. This team is made up of girls of High School age and is being coached by Bruce Cable.

The Nightingales, the R.N. team from the Drayton Valley Hospital will be out on the diamond full force again this year. The Nightingales had an eventful softball season in 1967 and look forward to even better things this year. Regular practice sessions for the Nightingales get underway this week.

RECREATION LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

The 1968 Recreation Leadership School will be held at the Vocational High School in Drumheller, Alberta from July 1st to July 27th. The purpose of this school is to provide persons interested in leading Recreation Activities with the opportunity to develop their leadership skills.

Every community in Alberta has the opportunity to nominate candidates to this school. These candidates must be nominated by a local Recreation Board or some equivalent organization in the community, they must be physically fit, have completed Grade 11 or be completing that grade by June 1968 and, what is most important, those persons must be prepared to provide leadership service to their community on their return from the school.

Candidates who successfully complete this course will be certified as follows:

First Year--A letter of credit; Second Year--A recreation activity leader's certificate. Any and all interested persons should apply early. Applications for both first and second year candidates must be made prior to Monday, May 16th. For further information about the 1968 Recreation Leadership School or for application forms for the school, contact your local Recreation Department at the Town Hall.

Avoid misunderstandings and financial loss by getting all bids and estimates in writing.

LIBRARY NEWS

Would you like to select a book as a gift for a child? Perhaps you aren't too sure what would be appreciated. Your library has books which will assist you.

Two books by Phyllis Fenner are excellent aids. 1. The Proof of the Pudding - What Children Read and 2. Something Shared - Children's Books

Phyllis Fenner says, "It is easy for people who work with children to tell a child who has come from a home where books are important, even a five year old can benefit.".

Visiting Evangelist Also Ventriloquist

According to Pastor Roy E. Kemp of the Drayton Valley Pentecostal church, this community is soon to undergo a unique spiritual experience as Rev. E.C. O'Brien of Calgary comes here to conduct a weekend of varied activities.

Evangelist O'Brien comes with a background of pastoral and administrative experience having served as Pastor of Pentecostal churches in both eastern and western Canada; and as administrator in both National and Provincial departments of Youth and Sunday School of the church as well as Youth for Christ Director.

In addition Mr. O'Brien has conducted overseas Missionary Evangelistic Crusades in the Orient and in the West Indies, and he will be showing beautiful colored slides of these mission fields while he is here.

On Friday evening at 8 p.m. Mr. O'Brien will talk informally to married couples. This 'marriage-centred' and 'home centred' talk will prove valuable to every married couple who attends.

Saturday morning will never be forgotten by the children as Rev. O'Brien, who is acclaimed one of the best ventriloquists in North America, uses his puppet "Gregory" to tell fascinating Bible stories to the children. Kids Crusade time will be 10:30 a.m.

The teens will also be delighted with the challenging message Mr. O'Brien will bring them at "Teens For Christ' in the Elementary School Auditorium at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Sunday morning will bring a great evangelistic service following the 10:00 a.m. Sunday School session with Gregory and Mr. O'Brien. The evening service at 7:30 p.m. will emphasize missions.

Everybody is welcome to attend the Pentecostal Tabernacle in Drayton Valley for this exciting weekend of activities.

ENTWISTLE NEWS

MRS. E. OLIVER,
Correspondent.

Mrs. Halliday has gone to be with her daughter who is very ill. It is hoped that Mrs. Nesbeth will soon be feeling much better.

Mrs. Copeland Sr. and Mrs. Maggie Melvan are still in the hospital. Several of the people from Entwistle have been down to see them.

The O.O.R.P. held its convention on Saturday, April 27 at Seba Beach. It consisted of 120 members and 25 from Entwistle. It was very well conducted and I think all there enjoyed the whole day. A lovely lunch was served by a 4-H club and a bite to eat was provided before leaving for home.

Grandma Hanson Sr. had the misfortune of breaking her hip April 8th. She is in an Edmonton Hospital and we all hope that her stay there will not be too long.

Dave Gylander is also in the Royal Alexandra Hospital, so Dave hurry up and get well so you can enjoy some of the summer.

The Entwistle Fire Department burnt the grass and brush from around the Entwistle Cemetery and some of our Senior Citizens want to help with the cleaning up around the graves.

Loraine and Roy Ostic and two daughters were visiting the Ken Hoople home on Sunday, April 28th. Loraine also visited her brother, Dale and his family.

The Elks held another Whist Drive on April 27th with six tables playing. The winners were: Ladies, 1st Mrs. Messenger; 2nd Owen Melnyk; Consolation Mrs. Nilsen; Mens, 1st George Egle; 2nd Lawrence Anderson; Consolation Elmer Messenger.

There will not be any more Whist Drives for awhile as the spring brings work for all and it will be announced when we will have one.

Mrs. Evelyn Cameron held a very successful recital for her pupils on Saturday, April 27th. Fourteen of her fifteen pupils took part. They all did very well and it was enjoyed by all present. Masters of Ceremony were Ken Williams and Kevin Stangway. Those participating were: Kevin and Marvin Strangway, Debbie and Jacquie Nelson, Ken, Gary and Gail Williams, Karen McRae, Shelly Carnahan, Cindy Relling, Dianne Welsh, Norine Messenger, Gail Brown and Beverly Cameron. Norine Messenger presented a gift to Mrs. Cameron on behalf of all the pupils. A lunch was served after the recital.

Mrs. Betty Brown is confined to her bed for a few days with a very sore throat. It is hoped that she will soon be up and around before long.

The Elks Bingo will be held on May 10th at 8 p.m.

Health Hints
from
THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

CONCUSSION

Concussion means violent shaking. In medical usage, says The Canadian Medical Association, it means a violent shaking of the brain resulting from a head injury in which there is no fracture of the skull. The head injury producing this condition need not be severe, and no structural brain damage is recognized after recovery.

Industrial accidents, automobile accidents and sports injuries are among the most common causes of concussion. The victim is usually dazed or unconscious for a few seconds, but certain mental functions may be impaired for a period lasting up to several hours. During this time he may carry out complicated activities of which he afterwards remembers nothing. The duration of this period of "post-traumatic amesia" is of value in determining the seriousness of the head injury.

As the patient recovers consciousness, his pulse and breathing become stronger, he often vomits, is confused, restless and irritable, and almost always complains of headache. The C.M.A. says that these symptoms, with the possible exception of headache, usually disappear within 48 hours, leaving the patient with a gap in his memory but no other recognizable evidence of brain damage. However, he may feel a little weak for several days.

Anyone who loses consciousness should be seen by a physician as soon as possible.

12 Simple Suggestions for Spray & Dust Safety

1. ALWAYS read the label before using sprays or dusts. Note warnings and cautions each time before opening the container.
2. Keep sprays and dusts out of the reach of children, pets and irresponsible people. They should be stored outside of the home, away from food and feed, and under lock and key.
3. ALWAYS store sprays and dusts in original containers and keep them tightly closed. NEVER keep them in anything but the original container.
4. NEVER smoke while spraying or dusting.
5. Avoid inhaling sprays or dusts. When directed on the label, wear protective clothing and masks.
6. Do not spill sprays or dusts on the skin or clothing. If they are spilled, remove contaminated clothing IMMEDIATELY and wash thoroughly.
7. Wash hands and face and change to clean clothing after spraying or dusting. Also wash clothing each day before reuse.
8. Cover food and water containers when treating around livestock or pet areas. Do not contaminate fish ponds.
9. Use separate equipment for applying hormone-type herbicides in order to avoid accidental injury to susceptible plants.
10. ALWAYS dispose of empty containers so that they pose no hazard to humans, animals or valuable plants.
11. Observe label directions and cautions to keep residues on edible portions of plants within the limits permitted by law.
12. If symptoms of illness occur during or shortly after spraying or dusting, call a physician or get the patient to a hospital immediately.

Kids Crusade Saturday Morning

A Kids Crusade will be held in the Pentecostal Tabernacle in Drayton Valley on Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. Rev. E.C. O'Brien of Calgary will use "Gregory", his ventriloquist puppet to tell fascinating Bible Stories to the children. Acclaimed one of the best ventriloquists in North America, Rev. O'Brien has used this method of reaching boys and girls in summer camps for more than 15 years.

If transportation is required for the children please phone 542-3843. There is no charge.

VE-Day Dance

Mr. F. Croft, President of the Evansburg Branch No. 196 of the Royal Canadian Legion, has announced plans for a VE-Day Cabaret Dance on Friday May 10th at the Legion Hall.

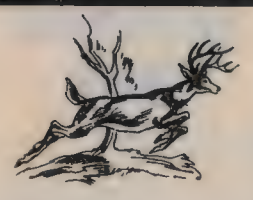
Outdoors Notes . .



American hunters will again be invited to hunt in Northern Alberta this fall announced the Hon. H.A. Ruste, Minister of Alberta's Department of Lands and Forest. However, a number of changes have been made to the Game Act Regulations which will overcome a number of problems which occurred during last year's season.

The license fee has been increased to $50.00 up from twenty-five dollars a year ago. The hunters will also be required to pay an additional two dollars for their Wildlife Certificates.

The special moose season for non-residents will entitle the license holders to hunt and kill one moose either male or female between September 2 and December 21st, in Big Game Zone One. Big Game Zone One comprises most of the portion of the Province of Alberta lying north of Cold Lake, Lac La Biche, Athabasca, Smith, Fort Assiniboine, Whitecourt, and the Berland River, excluding the Grande Prairie and Peace River Block.

Non-residents will not be permitted to hunt in the special area unless accompanied by a licensed guide. The department's Fish and Wildlife Division is carrying out a program of obtaining and licensing more guides. A new "B" Class Guide's License has been established to assist the economy of the northern part of the province and to provide sufficient guides for the visiting non-resident hunters.

No trophy fees are charged over or above regular license fees on any animal or bird hunted and killed in Alberta. It is also against the law to export in any way any animal or bird or part thereof beyond the boundaries of Alberta without having first obtained an Export Permit.

Every person hunting game in the forested areas of Alberta which includes Big Game Zone One, must, while hunting, be clothed in a long-sleeved coat or garment completely scarlet or blaze orange in color and a cap or other head-dress of the same color. The blaze orange garments were brought into the Act this year.

Animal scientists at CDA's Research Station at Lethbridge have carried out tests showing that bulls and partial castrates can perform better in the feed lot than steers. Selecting a carcass that was average for each group, Dr. R. Hironaka, nutritionist, and Dr. C.B.M. Bailey, animal physiologist, point out the similarity of the lean-to-fat ratio of the partial castrate and steer (top and middle pictures). Both of them have a higher fat percentage than the bull carcass at bottom.
